

SAMUEL KINCAIDE.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. C. MORRIS, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Samuel Kincaide, report :

That the petitioner states that he first received a pension of eight dollars per month ; that under the act of June, 1836, his pension has been increased to twelve dollars ; but that in consequence of severe spasms, occasioned by the loss of his leg, his health of late has very much declined, and the amount which he receives is insufficient to support himself and family, and he therefore asks Congress to increase his pension.

The fact of his health having declined is certified to by John Starr and Nathaniel Bachelor, surgeons, and also by two other individuals under oath.

The committee do not consider it their duty, under the circumstances, to recommend an increase of pension ; and therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of said petition.

Blair & Rives, printers.

SAMUEL KINCAID.

MARCH 5, 1840.

Read, and laid upon the table.

Mr. C. MORRIS, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Samuel Kincaid, report:

That the petitioner states that he first received a pension of eight dollars per month; that under the act of June, 1836, his pension has been increased to twelve dollars; but that in consequence of severe spasms, occasioned by the loss of his leg, his health of late has very much declined, and the amount which he receives is insufficient to support himself and family, and he therefore asks Congress to increase his pension.

The fact of his health having declined is certified to by John Starr and Nathaniel Bachelor, surgeons, and also by two other individuals under oath.

The committee do not consider it their duty, under the circumstances, to recommend an increase of pension; and therefore ask to be discharged from the further consideration of said petition.

Blair & Rives, printers.